his opinion?

I have no remarks on point no 1.
As regards 2), the Stamp Duty may be remitted, for reasons stated by the Dy Commr., by means of an order under S. 9 to be published in the Gazette.
Point no. 3) - Neither the Dy Commr's verbal letter nor this bulky file enable me to father readily whether the Devar brothers are still the owners of the estate in question or whether they have been bought out under clause (3) of para 5 of the G.O. of 1 Janr 1905, and in the former case, whether the taking over by Govt. was with the consent of the proprietors.

Should both these conditions co-exist, I would suggest that the combined bond men be taken from them, ~~and~~ equally ~~with~~ other proprietors.
In other words, if the case falls under ~~para~~ clause (4) of the order already quoted, then a ^{form} document on the lines indicated should be insisted on, if it falls under clause (3), obviously no such document is necessary -
